

Introduction

What is this document about?

An original draft of this document was created to catalog an incident involving an adult holding an inappropriate relationship with a minor in The Tonics \(MvM\) group in late March/early April 2026. This document's original purpose was to document this incident and the lack of response by members closely associated with the victim. This purpose has shifted with new information that was made available in late May/early June 2026.

This document has since been overhauled due to new information that has freed a lot of issues that I originally had with the incident. However, what has not stopped being important is that this document remains to fully document the incident and ensure that the adult in this situation is never allowed to return to the community in any major form.

If you have any questions, please feel free to reach out to Isozymic on Steam.

"The Tonics \(MvM\)" is a group that was founded on February 14th, 2026. As of May 24th, 2026, it has 16 members. To save space in this document, it will be referred to as "TONIC" going forward.

TONIC was founded by ADP to (presumably) create a more streamlined MvM experience for the members inside; by founding a group of likeminded individuals, games could be smoother for each member within. This is further explained by their group description.

The Tonics

Hello! We are The Tonics, we enjoy grinding Mann Vs Machine on TF2.

Some things we like:

(IG=in general)

Doing MVM really fast

Damage records

Challenge runs like randomizer

MVM Marathons

Grinding more tours in general

Things we don't like:

Slow F4

The Gas passer (IG)

Pyro as a whole (IG)

Cheaters

Credit Exploiters/Instant Respawn Exploiters

The French

We are symbolized by the scales of balance and the concept of Ying and Yang. What the ♥♥♥♥ does that stupid sentence mean? Basically we are willing to help you if you are willing to listen but we will be toxic ♥♥♥♥♥♥♥♥ if you arent.

A snapshot of the group on March 29th, 2026 from WayBackMachine shows that they had 13 members nearing the end of March 2026. Of these members is an individual named Darcy (Madoka Kaname). In current times, a member of the group Boiled Steak can be found as well.

These two individuals clearly knew each other before this group was established; A comment reading "+rep my favorite lesbian" can be found from Boiled Steak's (now banned) MvMLobby account

The following screenshots at the end of this page are to ensure validity; each of these shows numerous comments in relation to the ones above, as to show that they belong to both Darcy and Boiled Steak's MvMLobby's in the event of deletion or modification.

Fuushiwawa - Boiled Steak - Darcy - Even0

The above screenshot is taken from Fuushiwawa's steam profile. On March 20th, 2026, Darcy publicly commented on Fuushiwawa's profile that they were upset with them for "following the commands of others" to "extract information out of them".

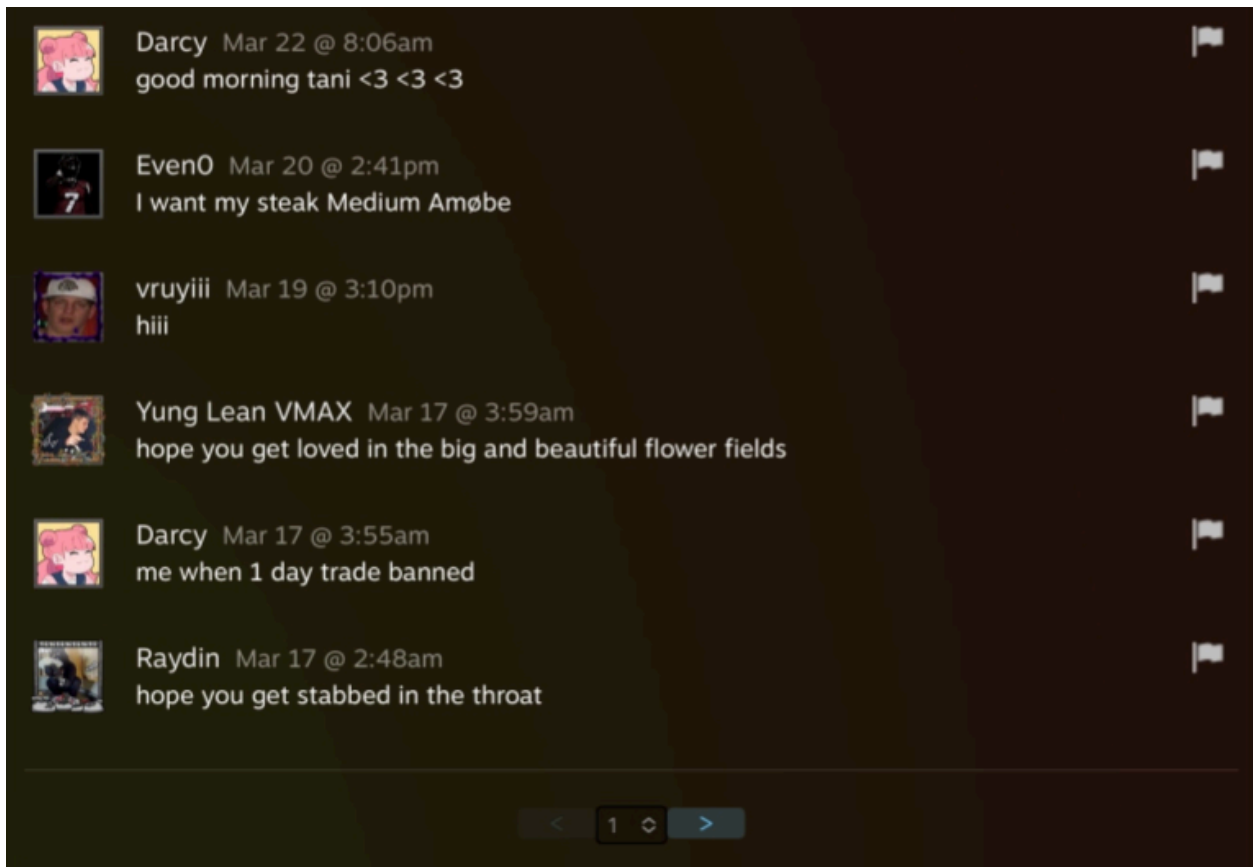

Fuushi's reply elaborates on the vague terminology, where she mentions that she is matching profile pictures with a minor and wants to know her side of the story. Unfortunately, the matter was not discussed; Darcy called the other 2 MARI (MvM Animal Research Institute) members stupid, leaving a lack of explanation. Additionally, it is important to note that Darcy's statement seems to imply that these allegations started at or before 3/20/2026, as allegations, according to Darcy, were being thrown around by 2 MARI members.

Fuushiwawa's video (The Fuushiwawa Files, timestamped 32:55) explains their stance on the matter; that while odd, this isn't proof of any foul play and that they wanted to simply know Darcy's side of accusations that were being levied their way. In their own words, they state:

"As you can see in the top left corner, the date goes as far back as 3/23 (2026) and the two are clearly matching pfps. Does this suggest anything explicit? Not necessarily. Platonic friends or acquaintances do this quite frequently. However, the fact that Boiled Steak is a minor (Believed to be 15 or 16 years of age) raises some eyebrows."

Dated 3/23 in top-left corner; timestamped 32:50 in [TF2] The Fuushiwawa Files

Certain comments, like Even0's, are still present on Steak's profile, proving this is his.

Boiled Steak - Darcy

This page used to be very long, but I've entirely revised it due to conversing with both members and the information being very concrete rather than speculation based on multiple conversations.

Both of these screenshots indicate that both members, but particularly Darcy were aware that Boiled Steak was a minor and Darcy was not a minor by common standards (I.E. $\geq$ to 18 years of age)

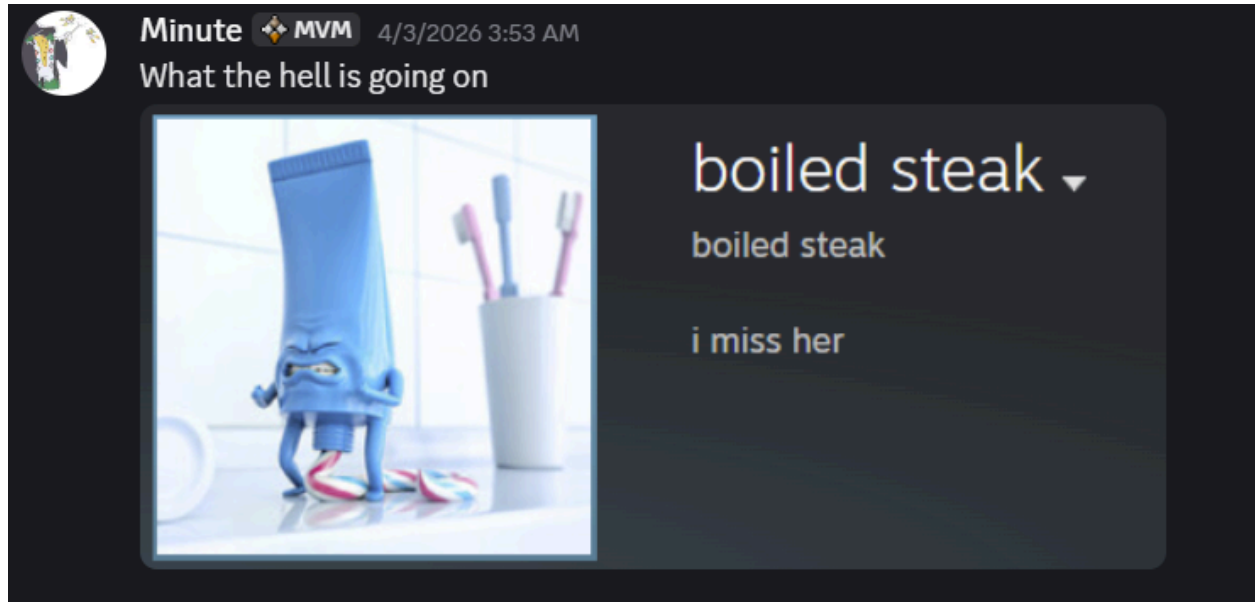

There is no doubt that Darcy knew that Boiled Steak was a minor at any point during their time of which they were on friendly terms. This is corroborated by both the victim and the accused as seen above.

Note: This is the earliest known (to me) date of something occurring.

On April 3rd, 2026, it appeared that both Boiled Steak AND Darcy had left TONIC and changed their profile pictures to no longer be matching, in addition to profile descriptions that indicated some kind of separation (as seen above).

Details on this incident were not well known to the public/members outside of TONIC or Boiled Steak's friend group. However, the "i miss her" text is often used in relation to mourning of romantic relationships, leading to an assumed breakup.

The day after (April 4th, 2026), I asked TONIC member Korona if something that happened due to the strong accusations surrounding Darcy and Boiled Steak at the time. His answer indicated that something had happened, but that Boiled Steak did not want to share any information surrounding the incident with the greater community.

Isozymic 2:37 PM

Hey, do you have any information on what happened between Darcy and Boiled Steak? There's some strong accusations being thrown around and I noticed that they're no longer in TONIC anymore.

Korona 2:38 PM

uh ill tell u after this game wave 6/6

Isozymic 2:38 PM

You got it boss

Korona 2:50 PM

"boiled steak has chosen to not publicly disclose any information regarding the situation between him and darcy"

If you want any details, your gonna have to add and ask him... if he's even willing to disclose anything

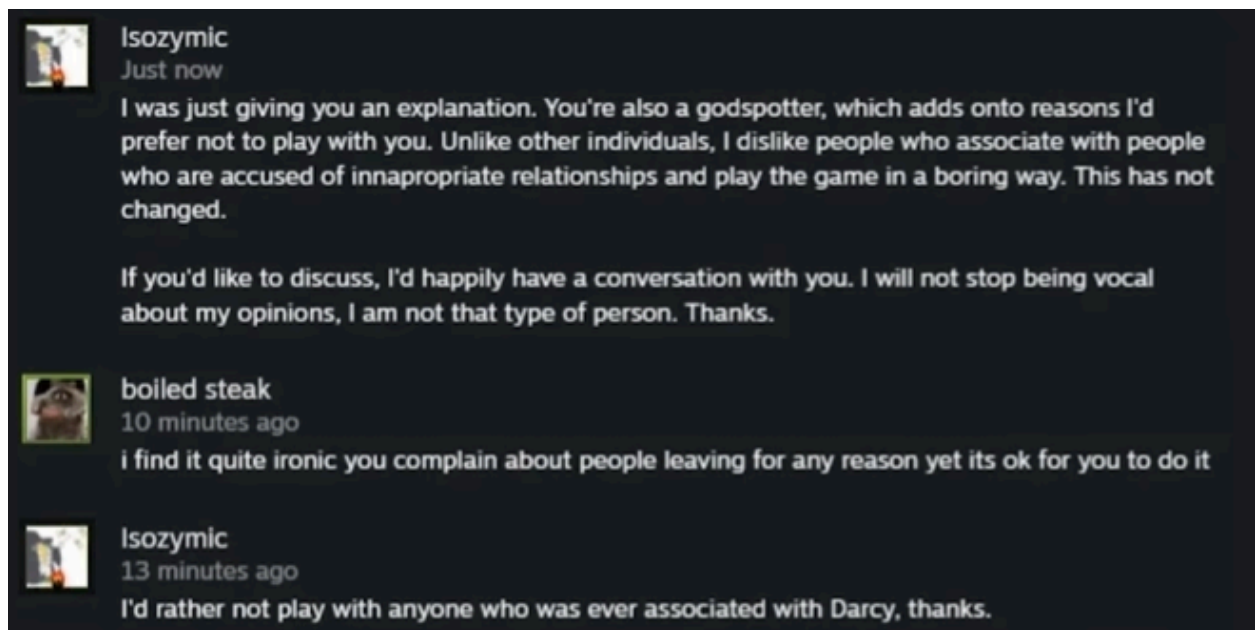

sorry

Isozymic 2:54 PM

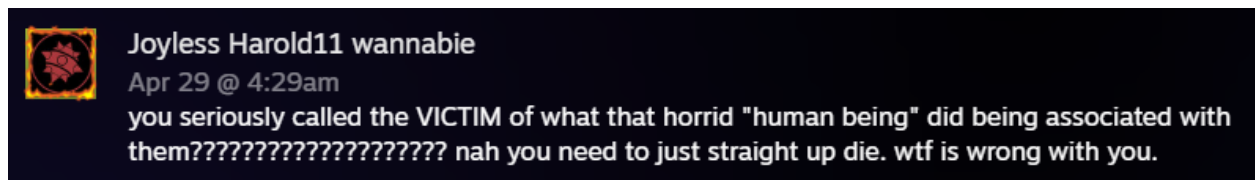

Sounds good. No worries

Information about what happened was scarce and continued to be that way for a while. Boiled Steak never published any kind of statement or description of what happened. There were only rumors on what happened on this topic for a long time.

However, on the 29th of April, 2026, an incident happened with myself and Boiled Steak. This argument stemmed from me leaving Boiled Steak's lobby and commenting on my steam profile. I commented back that I did not want to play with anyone associated at any time with Darcy.

My larger statement (seen above) was then used to fuel insults thrown my way, with the notable one being by ADP that revealed that something significant had happened with Boiled Steak and Darcy.

NOTE: "Human being" in this refers to Darcy; "VICTIM" refers to Boiled Steak.

This is the first public mention of the fact that Darcy had done something inappropriate to Boiled Steak. While there are still no publicly available details, the implication of "Victim" and language of dehumanization implies that there was some kind of inappropriate relationship between the two.

Calls being the victim of pedophilia "being associated". Also a retard.
 - Joyless Harold11 wannabe on 2026-04-29 02:32:02

NOTE: It is still unknown what "victim of pedophilia" means explicitly, as in Darcy's exact actions.

Unless Boiled Steak or individuals with more information come out, there is no way to know Darcy's exact actions, but ALL members of TONIC concur with the idea that Darcy was, in some way, pedophilic towards Boiled Steak directly - making them a victim of pedophilia in some way, shape, or form.

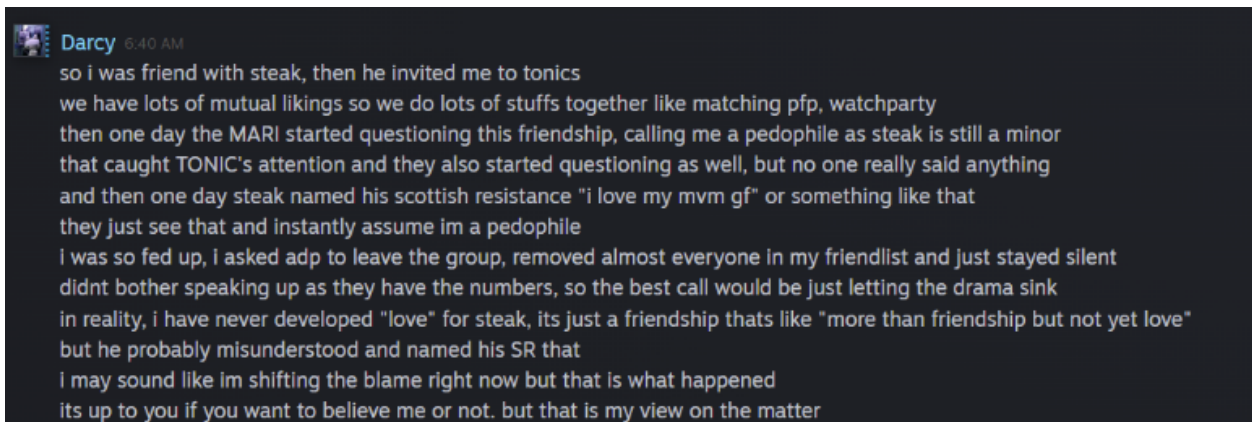

POST-REVISION - 8/10/2026

There is a lot of new information. Admittedly, most of this information (from the dated timestamp above) is a few months old now, but I presumed most of the "damage" to Darcy's reputation to be done by the time that I could've revised this document.

However, I think it is important to complete this document. As such, this section is being added as an addendum.

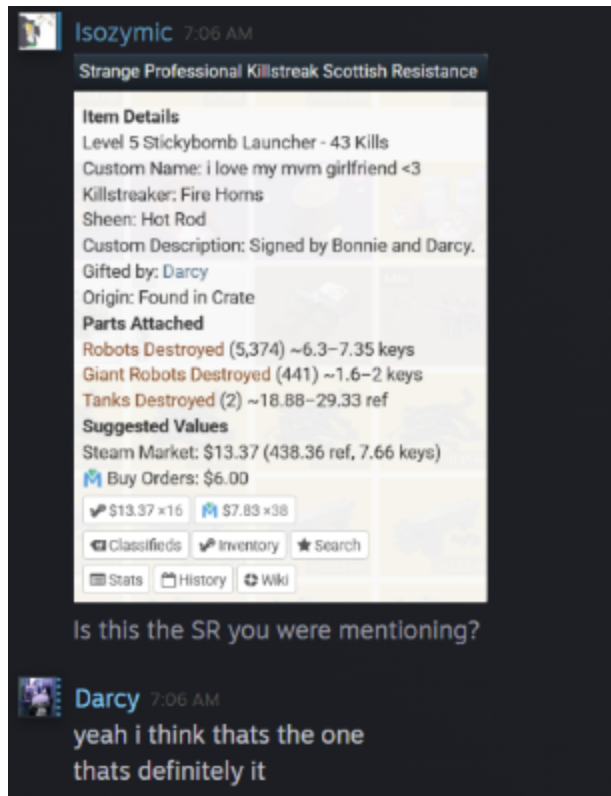

MAY 31ST - DARCY CONVERSATION

On May 31st, I was able to add Darcy and have a conversation with them about the situation that had occurred months earlier. This entire conversation can be viewed here. The following is going to be highlights of this conversation that are important to their own interpretation of events in line with the recorded history of events.

This is Darcy's side of the story.

To corroborate their side of events, the Scottish Resistance bit did in fact happen.

Isozymic 6:58 AM

Is that all the allegations were? Why didn't Boiled speak up for you?

Darcy 6:56 AM

im not sure about him to be honest probably he realized he had the victim card as tonic members were on his side, thinking he is a victim of pedophilia, they got really protective and forced him to remove me from every platforms but right before that he said he would speak up for me but he really didnt, when i reminded him he said he will when he is 18 i lost my hope for him about that

The framing of this conversation implies that Darcy does not believe that Boiled Steak was the victim of "pedophilia". She does believe the relationship between her and Boiled Steak was inappropriate, but that there was no sexual or romantic interest between the two.

Isozymic 8:07 AM

Ohhh, sorry, I didn't follow correctly

Do you mind if I ask who still has you added then? I've been asking people to talk about this situation forever but I haven't been able to get anyone to actually converse. It's important that if this story is NOT being what is perpetrated publicly that it is corrected.

Darcy 8:05 AM

no I cant tell you who that tonic member is

Isozymic 8:08 AM

That's okay, no worries.

Darcy 8:09 AM

and steak unadded me on steam just to soothe his people's nerves but still have me added on discord and then they later found out and forced him to remove me there as well he said he still want me added as im a likable person when he unadded me he also said he might add me back when he is 18 but considering how he stayed silent and left me dead with a pedophile reputation like this, I dont think im letting him come back to me

Isozymic 8:12 AM

Just to ask to confirm about this, The "Innapropriate" conduct, at least from your view, was perpetrated by Steak himself, no? Obviously perceptions can differ from person-to-person, people can view watching relationship anime as intimate or not, but the event that essentially got you shunned from the community was just the SR incident in combination with allegations from MARI, right?

Darcy 8:14 AM

that summarization should do

I dont hold any grudge against steak but, aw man he was bad to me when it happened

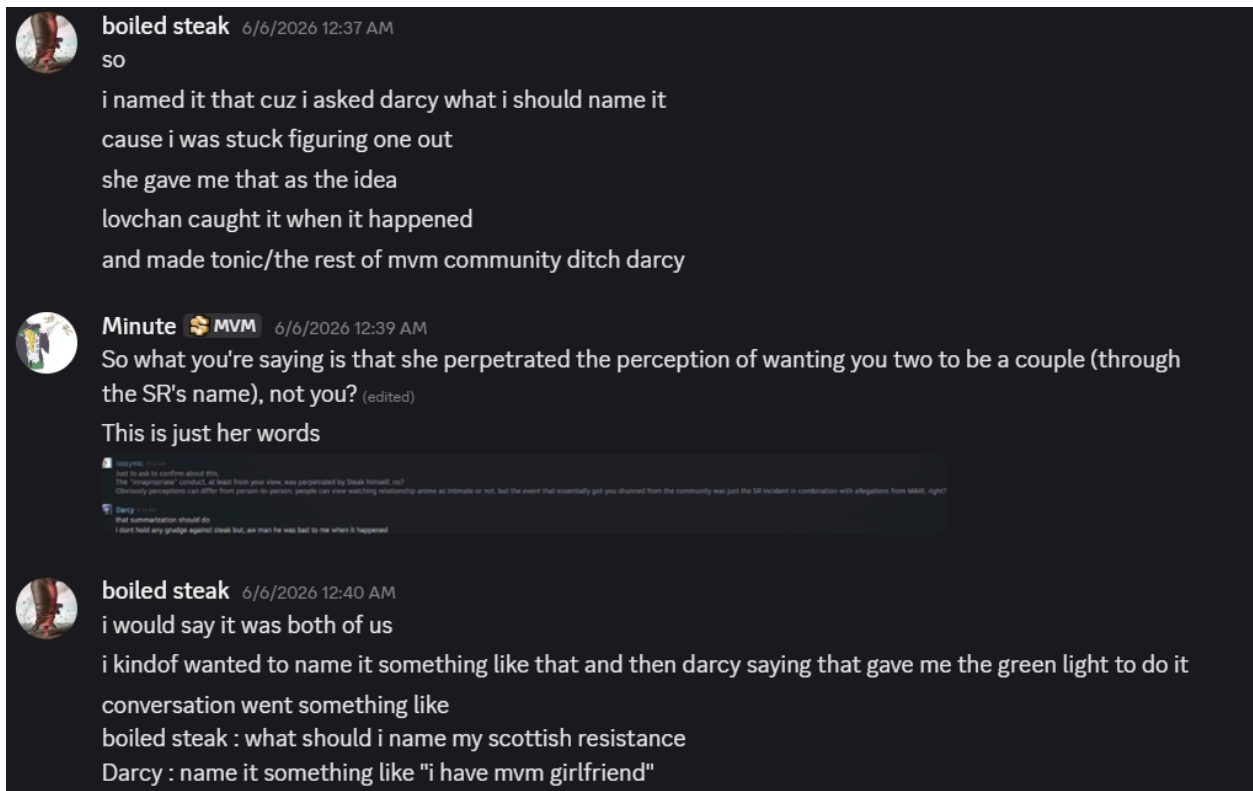

The final statement at the bottom confirms that Darcy does not believe that this was entirely "her fault" so-to-speak. She believes that some of this was perpetuated by Steak despite his minor status and that he "left her for dead" with a "pedophile reputation".

These are the large points to take away from Darcy's interpretation of the situation, but the full imgur link is available 24/7 if you need additional context.

BOILED STEAK

I was able to get ahold of Boiled Steak on 6/6/2026, about ~5-6 days post my conversation with Darcy. To protect Boiled Steak's privacy, there are certain parts of this conversation that I will not be airing, given his status as a minor.

However, I will share all parts of our conversation that are important to rely about this incident to provide a contrast to Darcy's perspective.

The screenshot shows a Discord chat interface with a dark theme. It contains three messages:

- boiled steak (6/6/2026 12:37 AM):
so i named it that cuz i asked darcy what i should name it cause i was stuck figuring one out she gave me that as the idea lovchan caught it when it happened and made tonic/the rest of mvm community ditch darcy
- Minute (6/6/2026 12:39 AM):
So what you're saying is that she perpetrated the perception of wanting you two to be a couple (through the SR's name), not you? (edited)
This is just her words insights
we do ask to confirm about this.
The "misinformation" context, at least from your view, was perpetrated by Steak himself, not Obviously perceptions can differ from person-to-person, people can view watching relationship as more intimate or not, but the events that essentially got you shunned from the community was just the SR incident in combination with allegations from M4M4, right?
- boiled steak (6/6/2026 12:40 AM):
i would say it was both of us i kindof wanted to name it something like that and then darcy saying that gave me the green light to do it conversation went something like boiled steak : what should i name my scottish resistance Darcy : name it something like "i have mvm girlfriend"

*"That" refers to Boiled Steak's Scottish Resistance, as discussed earlier.
Boiled Steak's take seems to place mutual blame on the incident, rather than perpetuating that one individual had more responsibility, even despite his status.*

boiled steak 6/6/2026 12:55 AM

most of this is accurate

when it happened i wanted to defend darcy but i wasnt sure on if people would let me i would say the "cover up" was that it was mostly internal i didnt want anyone to know about it because i considered it quite emberassing for me

Minute 6/6/2026 12:58 AM

Is that why people, for lack of a better term, "in your circle" haven't really publicized it?

boiled steak 6/6/2026 12:58 AM

yeah

the only reason why people know about it happening is that MARI just so happened to be right

"Most of this" refers to my conversation with Darcy, which I let Boiled Steak screen before we conversated.

"In your circle" refers to TONIC and associated friends.

What is important to note is that despite what happened, Boiled Steak still is remorseful about the situation and how it broke off a friendship, being hesitant to even place blame.

boiled steak 6/6/2026 1:06 AM

I do think that it blurred the lines of friendship/relationship

On the topic of his friendship with Darcy.

boiled steak 6/6/2026 1:11 AM

yeah i would like to point that out when korona sent you the message of "boiled steak would like to keep the details private" those were my exact words when he asked me

Minute 6/6/2026 1:13 AM

Hearing that come from you directly makes the aftermath of this situation make a lot more sense from an outsider's perspective.

boiled steak 6/6/2026 1:14 AM

i wanted everyone to not talk about it to protect my mental well-being at the time because i figured that it would be the next big mvm drama

Despite the nature of this being incredibly sensitive, Boiled Steak wanted to keep this situation "under wraps" to avoid a large drama spill surrounding himself and his friends.

The largest takeaways from this material is that Boiled Steak was not incredibly on-the-gun to blame Darcy, directly challenging her perspective.

Minute 🍷 MVM 6/6/2026 1:15 AM

Were you more afraid of it being used against you or did you not personally view Darcy as a predator to you at that time?

boiled steak 6/6/2026 1:16 AM

i didnt want MARI to have any ammo to use to personally attack me, and i also did not view darcy as a predator

Additionally, Boiled Steak did not view her initially as a predator, directly challenging her perspective.

Analysis

Analysis and Rationalizations

Users Mentioned

Darcy - Boiled Steak

This document has been revised as of 8/10/26.

Originally, this section was to analyze the lack of action by members of TONIC on the behalf of Boiled Steak. This has since been rescinded due to Boiled Steak making it very clear that he did NOT want this incident addressed to protect himself and all involved out of his and even Darcy's best interest.

boiled steak 6/6/2026 1:14 AM

i wanted everyone to not talk about it to protect my mental well-being at the time because i figured that it would be the next big mvm drama

This section will now instead rationalize why many view Darcy as a predator.

Darcy's actions (such as wanting to be referred to as "MvM Girlfriend" on his SR), spending individual time watching romance anime, etc. between an adult and a minor is not very appropriate conduct to most, especially not when there seems to be at least some level of flirtatious lines happening from the adult. Boiled Steak's conduct was not even near to any level of entrapment. In fact, while he himself seems to take blame for certain aspects of this situation, he is not the adult who then allowed this behavior to perpetuate. A failure to recognize when boundaries were being blurred relies entirely on the adult in this situation, that being Darcy. Failure to do so leads to a potential dangerous situation, which was thankfully avoided by members of the group noticing odd behavior, causing Darcy's departure. While it is good that Darcy's departure occurred before any more inappropriate conduct could take place, Darcy's own words seem to displace blame from the situation onto others "dogpiling" her. Her conduct towards me in our conversation did not seem as although she recognized her part in blurring lines and that she is mostly abstaining from taking blame in the situation.

As such, I cannot say in good faith that Darcy should ever be let back into our greater community. An inability to recognize when lines are being blurred with a minor is one thing, but to avoid taking blame leads me to believe that Darcy genuinely does not understand the wrongs that occurred in this situation to lead to a "more than friendship, less than relationship" situation that occurred between her and a minor. If she cannot take blame for this, I am not confident that she would not have this happen in the future. If there is any vital takeaway to take from this analysis, it is this: Darcy, whether predator or not, is unable to properly take blame for actions of hers that lead to this dangerous situation between herself and a minor.

What Now?

What should happen now?

An informed public is a public that can make informed decisions. I hope the information in this document allows individuals to make informed decisions about the people they associate with in the future. In particular, I advise that all individuals in any position of power within any group in the MvM or greater TF2 community do not allow Darcy into their communities.

Keep yourself and your community members safe.
